

PRESS RELEASE

From: Louisiana Press Association

Subject: Better Newspaper, Free Circulation and Special Interest, and Student Newspaper Editorial Competition Results

Embargoed until 3 p.m., Saturday, April 8

The Madison Journal (Tallulah), the Plaquemine Post/South, L'Observateur (LaPlace), the Minden Press-Herald, The Courier (Houma), The Advertiser (Lafayette), and The Times-Picayune (New Orleans) earned Newspaper of the Year honors in their respective divisions at the 120th Annual Louisiana Press Association Convention in Lafayette.

The designation for the Newspaper of the Year is based on the number of points earned in the Better Newspaper Editorial Competition and the Better Newspaper Advertising Competition for 1999 with awards being given in individual contests for first, second, and third places. The editorial contests range from news story writing to graphic design while the advertising entries were judged based on design, creativity and effectiveness. The North Carolina Press Association judged the advertising contest last fall. The Washington Newspaper Publishers Association judged the editorial contest this spring.

Seventy-seven newspapers, publications, and college/university student newspapers submitted 2,030 entries.

Earning sweepstakes awards in the editorial competition were the Madison Journal (Tallulah), the Plaquemine Post/South, the Denham Springs-Livingston Parish News, The Slidell Sentry-News, The Courier (Houma), The Advertiser (Lafayette), The Times-Picayune (New Orleans).

The Courier (Houma) won the Freedom of Information award for its efforts that showed a real application and explanation of the Freedom of Information Act in regard to action taken by the Houma Housing Authority. The newspaper's efforts resulted in the criminal investigation of the Housing Authority operation and investigation of the violation of the public meetings law. The saga is also continuing with a federal lawsuit and the election of a new parish president as the political fall-out. "Through The Courier's pursuit of the truth, the people of Terrebonne Parish now are aware of not only what the Housing Authority is supposed to do, but also what it isn't," said Mike Slaughter, executive editor.
